

White Wooden Plinths with Carrara Marble Tops

Our enhanced range of wooden (mdf) plinths feature marble display tops, making a perfect and platform for any product. The plinths available for hire come with a 30mm thick carrara marble top, whereas our plinths for purchase offer clients a choice of various marble types and colour, available from our extensive library of stone options. The wooden bases are finished to a cabinet makers standard, with invisible joints and coated in a durable paint. The collection is available in various size options with flexible additions such as perspex and branding.
