

Pink Artemis Plinths

Artemis is the ultimate luxury item offering a display alternative that is stylish, classic in design and made from the finest pink marble. The elegant clean lines of the plinth work harmoniously with the natural beauty of the material being used, whilst the white powder coated metal skeleton frame provides impact and strength. The marble top and front of this plinth are finished with bevelled edging, highly polished and capped with a carved architectural moulding that enhances the entire plinth.
